PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Sunshine Outing

It was great to see lots of NSCG members and visitors at Sunshine on the 21st March.

Some good scores were posted on the day with one particular handicap being unfairly adjusted and the “Eagles Nest” was won by Chris Knaggs.

See day results later in this newsletter or on our website with accompanying photos – thanks DD.

Club Membership

The Club is attracting many enquiries regarding membership at the moment but under our Constitution 45 is the maximum membership number - any more making it very difficult for course and golf day management.

As a number of Golf Courses are limiting Social Golf Club group numbers it is becoming very important for members to notify our Club Captain (Dave Duncan) if you are attending the monthly outing or not.

Please note that if numbers are tight precedence will always be given to members ahead of visitors.

Golf Access Australia

By now all members should have received their “Annual Subscription Renewal” which should be paid by the 30th April 2010.

NSCG Membership Fees

Also due are the annual club fees which cover a range of administrative expenses and also 2 tickets to the annual Presentation Night.

To assist our Treasurer could all members pay asap.

Club Jackets

Jackets are now available and can be ordered via Andrew Wallis at a subsidized cost of $40.00. The jackets are reversible with sleeves and hood being removable and have the club's logo.

Thanks to Leah Wallis for arranging the supply of these jackets.

I am unable to attend the next two outings due to the Templestowe Festival (18/04) and an overseas trip in May – Phil Mott will be acting President at Flinders and Noel Tuck will act in that capacity at Drouin.

See you all at Settlers Run in June.

Jim King
