

NSGC PRESIDENTS REPORT APRIL 2012

CHURCHILL PARK OUTING

A good attendance ensured some very competitive golf on the day with the final result in doubt until the final four cards were handed in – three on 41 stableford points but touched by a solitary 42 pointer.

This was the second round of the Presidents Cup and it appears, at this stage, that a popular “quinella” is looming – are these guys gearing up for a serious assault in Queensland ?????

We welcomed three new members to NSGC and had three visitors on the day so the future of our club looks great. It was also great to see Colin Pinsent on the 19th.

Sheriff Brett provided some more funds into the club coffers care of some guys continually dobbing in their mates – not very Aussie like but amusing all the same.

Overall the outing provided another very enjoyable day for our club - well done to all who attended.

QLD- ASGC

The Australian Social Golf Championships are on again this year. It looks like once again we have a good number going. If you would like to attend please click the link to find out more details.
